The requester will be given the opportunity to appear before the Board as soon as possible. The review of campus regulations shall be conducted by the Campus Board of Review, which shall make its recommendations to the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs. Any change in a recommendation from the Board to the Vice Chancellor must be returned to and approved by the Campus Board of Review. The Chancellor shall be the final appeal.

The Board's composition shall be three undergraduates (and one alternate) recommended by the Associated Students of UCR, one graduate student recommended by the Graduate Student Association, one faculty member recommended by the Academic Senate, and two staff members recommended by the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs. Students are ineligible to serve if they are members of organizations under sanction, or have cases pending before the Board.

The alternate student member shall vote only when a regular student member is absent, and a non-voting executive secretary may be appointed. Fifty percent of the regular membership is a quorum, which must include at least one student and at least one staff or faculty member. Members who are absent from three consecutive meetings of the Campus Board of Review shall no longer be members and shall be replaced.
